V In Bye laws 18 The word 15 in the third line seems to be a mistake for 16 which only reference is made to the issue of export passes

VI In Bye Laws 16 at the end The words, "and the same a fee of one anna shall be levied" should have been omitted (vide Bye Laws 15 of Hassan Rules but not) In case the passes are to be free the word after 'delivered' in the last but one line of the Bye Laws should be omitted If one annas or any other fee is to be levied the word free" in the second line of Bye Laws 18 has to be omitted

In fee Can be levied in respect pass in Bye laws as it stands is all right

VII In Bye Laws 19 The charges prescribed are lower than those prescribed in the Bye Laws 16 of Hassan The lower rates may perhaps be retained as There is a minor need

IX In legislation 24 to 27 it seems to be a rule to take for 27 to 32 as legislation 11 does not refer to census figures

X In Schedule IV the rates proposed for steps or grants to be given to persons other than those who have made claims under R 6317 R & C 31 of 1924 & 25 11 of 1920 (Flag who may perhaps be consulted) The figures proposed for Tamil officers seem to be the same as those paid to the Sinhalese officers but seem somewhat low The second item in 25 11 20 also requires to be marked for reduction
